

Axe Sword

This unusual weapon appears to be a longsword with a small battle-axe blade on the quillons. In battle, it acts as a +4 Defender Longsword. It possesses two additional powers: absorption of mystic energy and aging. The wielder has Spell Resistance of 10 plus character's level to all spells causing direct physical damage (fireball, lightning bolt, magic missile, etc.). Spells not causing direct physical damage (disintegration, death spell, finger of death, etc.) are not affected. Also, all attacks causing aging (ghost's touch, etc.) are absorbed and the owner ages at half the normal rate. Should the Axe Sword ever be destroyed, all the absorbed natural aging of its owner(s) is released, instantly aging them back to their chronological age.
